

ALLISON, DARRELL DEAN
June 5, 1938-March 16, 1978

Funeral services for Darrell Dean Allison were held Saturday, March 19, 1978 at the United Methodist Church in Wheatland with LeGrande T. Page officiating. Interment was in the Wheatland Cemetery.

Allison died at the age of 39 in the University Hospital in Salt Lake City, Utah after an extended illness. He was born in Missouri June 5, 1938 and as a young boy, he moved with his family to Iowa in 1939. In 1942 the family moved to Wheatland where he was raised and educated. Upon high school graduation, he enter the U.S. Army. He then returned to Wheatland and ranched with his father, Ralph, for a short time. He was a past member of the Moose Lodge here.

He began a career as a land appraiser with his job taking him to Wyoming, Utah, Arizona, Oklahoma, Michigan and Canada. He settled in Utah and held the position of land appraiser for the state of Utah until his death. He and Lee Ann Reader were married in Brigham City, Utah, January 1, 1972.

He is survived by his wife LeAnn Allison of Brigham City, Utah; two daughters, Kimberly Sue Linde of Laramie and Mona Kay Allison of Wheatland; his mother, Hazel I. Welty of Wheatland; two brothers, Harold and Eldon of Wheatland, and two sisters, Clara Miller of Wheatland and Mary Finkbinder of Casper. His father, Ralph Allison, preceded him in death.

Serving as pallbearers were Don Manning, Vic White, Don Allison, Jim Graves, Dick Sisson and Lee Miller. Schrader-Prell Funeral Home was in charge of arrangements. A memorial has been established to the Cancer Care Unit of the University Hospital in Salt Lake City, Utah in care of Schrader-Prell Funeral Home.