

ANDERSEN, WILLIAM E.
November 25, 1890-November 21, 1961

Funeral services were held Friday, November 24, at 1 p.m. for William E. Andersen, who passed away at the Platte County Memorial hospital November 21. Rev. Fred Stiegemeier of the United Church of Christ officiated at the services in the Schrader chapel. Burial was in the local cemetery with Julius Galligar, George Dodge, Frank Wilkinson, Andrew Roskie, Fritz Clair and Sam Wilson serving as pallbearers.

Born in Coleman, Tex. On Nov. 25, 1890, he had resided in Wyoming since 1912. He was a veteran of World War I and a member of the American Legion.

Survivors include one sister, Violet Sturgeon of Rock River; one brother, Alfred T. Andersen and several nieces and nephews of Hyattville, Wyo.; one nephew, Sydney Sturgeon, Jr. and four great nephews and one great niece of Rock River.

He was preceded in death by a brother, and his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Neil P. Andersen.