Mrs. Lizzie Anderson, who made her home on her farm north of Cottonwood creek, passed away at her home some time Saturday morning.

Mrs. Anderson was taken ill Friday and a doctor was called. While she was quite ill, her condition was not regarded as serious. Saturday morning, her nephew, Lon Cottrell, who made his home with his aunt, went to Glendo for some groceries and upon his return home found his aunt dead.

The deceased is survived by her nephew, and one brother, Chas. Ryser of Albuquerque, N.M. Her husband preceded her in death two years ago.
