

ANDREWS, PERRY WILLIAM
February 10, 1883-January 2, 1937

Perry William Andrews, a long time resident of the Wheatland community, passed away in Wheatland the second day of this year. The deceased had been in poor health for some time and while his condition was known by his large number of friends, his sudden passing was a distinct shock to all of them.

Mr. Andrews was born in Kansas, February 10, 1883, and had lived in this community the past 22 years. He worked as a brick mason on several of the buildings of Wheatland and also operated a ranch west of Wheatland until a short time ago when he and his family moved to Wheatland so he could be near medical attention.

Besides his wife, Mrs. Emma Andrews, he is survived by one son, Perry, Jr., and a daughter, Mrs. Inis Ballard, and a host of friends.

Funeral services were held at the funeral home of Watson and Dennis Home for Funerals and interment took place in the Wheatland cemetery on Monday at 2 o'clock. Ralph Underwood, pastor of the Christian church, preached the funeral sermon.
