

AYRES, ALCIE
June 3, 1888-January 10, 1911

The grim visitor, death, visited the home of Mr. and Mrs. J.R. Ayres Tuesday evening at 9:00 and took away the soul of their beloved daughter, Alcie.

She suffered for nearly five weeks and at times hopes were she would come out victorious, but the Lord knows best, and called her home.

Alcie will be greatly missed in this neighborhood as she was good help in time of need and was always jolly and looked on the bright side of life. She was a member of the Brotherhood of American Yeomen, and also a member of the Calico Club, in which she took an active part and was always on hand.

She leaves a father, mother, five brothers and two sisters, besides other relatives and many friends to mourn her loss.

The funeral services were conducted by Rev. Hicks at the Methodist church on Wednesday afternoon after which the remains were laid to rest by the side of her baby nephew, whom she nursed before his death.

The pall bearers were Messrs. Max. Ebert, Pate Shepard, Henry Yost, Ora Asher, Bernice Logue and Andy Mers.

Alcie Ayres was born at Blue Mound, Kansas, June 3, 1888, and died at the home of her parents near Wheatland, Wyoming, January 10, 1911, age 22 years, 8 months and 7 days.

It is sad to think that one just in the bloom of womanhood should be cut down, but her troubles are over and she has paid a debt we all must pay sooner or later and gone to live where sorrow and suffering are no more.

The entire neighborhood extends their sympathy, especially the Calico Club, of which Alcie and her mother were both members.

May God bless the home and especially the one that is still afflicted is the prayer and sincere wish of the writer.
