

2003

Tim Allen Bach

1-1-2003

No services were held for Tim Allen Bach, 60, a former Wheatland resident. Inurnment took place at Wheatland Cemetery.

Mr. Bach died Jan. 1 in Denver.

Tim was born March 1, 1942 in Vallejos, Calif., the son of Willard Carl "Dick" and Molly (Goetz) Bach. He was reared and educated in Wheatland, graduating in 1960.

Following graduation, he joined the United States Army Reserve and served 25 years as an active officer reservist; retiring with the rank of Major. He worked for John Nye in construction in Wheatland for a year; for Colorado and Southern Railroad in the train service; and later moved to Denver and worked as a salesman for Fred Schmidt Appliances.

In 1962, he married Ava Rae Grace in Wheatland, they later divorced.

Tim was a very gifted musician and could play any instrument.

Tim is survived by two children, Monta Ray Baugh and Travis Bach, both of Orange County, Calif.; a brother, Tim Bach of Wheatland; and six grandchildren.

He was preceded in death by his parents and an infant brother, Willard Bach.