

Willard Bach

10-9-1978

Willard Carl (Dick) Bach, 63, a former Wheatland resident, died Oct. 9 at his home in Torrington.

He was born March 22, 1915, in Prairie View, Kan., and came to Wheatland as a young man. He worked for the Rhoades Ranch, then later purchased a farm west of Wheatland that he operated until 1955.

He and his wife, Molly, moved to Wheatland and he was employed as a carpenter before moving to Torrington six years ago.

Bach is survived by two brothers, Clarence Bach and Elmer Bach, both of Wheatland; a sister, Linda Meyers of Ranchoester; two sons, Terry Bach of Chugwater and Tim Bach of Port Arthur, Tex.; and five grandchildren.

He was preceded in death by his wife, Molly Bach; two brothers, Albert Bach and Harry Bach, and a sister, Lucille Berney.

Services are set for Oct. 12 at 10:30 a.m. at the United Church of Christ with Rev. Gordon Grant officiating. Burial will be in the Wheatland Cemetery.

Pallbearers will be Alvin Walnbolt, Alfred Juschka, Phil Jenkins, Bill Dannar, Larry Kangas and Joe Howard.

The Schrader-Prell Funeral Home is in charge of arrangements.
