

BAKER, CHARLOTTE MAY
October 3, 1927-October 4, 1927

The happiness accompanying the arrival of a newborn daughter to Mr. and Mrs. Lester Baker, who reside five miles south of Wheatland, was short-lived and the little one who had been named Charlotte May Baker, died at 10 o'clock Tuesday morning, just twelve hours after birth. The child was the firstborn to Mr. and Mrs. Baker. The babe was buried at 10 o'clock this morning, Thursday, from the Watson Mortuary, the Rev. H.E. Shepherd, pastor of the Wheatland Methodist Episcopal church, conducting the services. Burial took place in the Baker family lot at the Wheatland Cemetery. The funeral services were private.
