

Mildred Baker

1931 to 1996

1-9-1996

Funeral services for Mildred Louise "Milly" Baker, 64, were held Friday, Jan. 12 at 10 a.m. at the Platte Funeral Chapel in Wheatland, with Father William A. Caspers officiating.

Baker died Tuesday, Jan. 9 at the Platte County Memorial Hospital in Wheatland.

Born August 5, 1931, in Wheatland, she was the daughter of Lyle Bode and Linnie (Freeman) Clay. Baker was reared and educated in Wheatland, graduating with the class of 1949.

Baker served in the United States Navy as a yeoman. After being discharged, Baker married Marlin Baker in Cheyenne, Wyo., on Jan. 28, 1954.

After raising their four children, Baker worked as a nurse aide at the Platte County Memorial Hospital. She also worked at the Ben Franklin Store for a time.

She was a past member of Jobe's Daughters and a member of Saint Patrick's Catholic Church. She enjoyed miniatures, gardening and crafts.

Baker is survived by her husband, Marlin, of Wheatland; four children, Marilyn Bowman of Lewisville, Tex., Janet Ziegelmann of Broomfield, Colo., Carol Baker of Cheyenne, and Robert Baker of Torrington, Wyo.; two sisters, Margaret Dockett of Torrington and Betty Arnold of Thornton, Colo.; and three grandchildren.

She was preceded in death by her parents.

Serving as honorary pallbearers were all of her many friends.

Memorials to the Platte County Memorial Nursing Home, 201 14th. St., Wheatland 82201, would be appreciated by the family.

Platte Funeral Chapel of Wheatland was in charge of the arrangements.
