

BANNER, FRANCIS J.
December 27, 1869-July 10, 1962

Francis J. Banner, 92, passed away July 10, 1962, in Pueblo, Colo., following an extended illness.

Born in Birmingham, England Dec. 27, 1869, he lived in the Wheatland and Laramie Peak area from 1885 to 1920. His original homestead was at Owen, Wyo. and he owned a grocery store at Uva for several years.

A retired carpenter and construction worker, he lived in Denver, Colo. from 1920 until his death.

Funeral services are scheduled for Saturday, July 14, at 11:00 a.m. in the Schrader chapel. Rev. Clifford Polson, Sr. will officiate and interment will be in the Wheatland cemetery. The family has requested no flowers.

Pallbearers will be Vic White, Jack White, Sam White, James Harris, James Bookout, and Robert Garrett.

Mr. Banner is survived by a son, J.T. Banner of Laramie, two grandchildren and one great grandchild.