

Cora Baros

Services were held Tuesday for Cora Baros, 71, who died Friday at the Platte County Memorial Hospital following an extended illness. Father Tony Jablonowski officiated at the service held at St. Anthony Catholic Church in Guernsey.

Cora was born July 4, 1909 in Clayton, N.M., the daughter of Rosendo and Felipita Gonzales Carabajal. She came to Wheatland as a young girl where she met and married Albert Baros, who survives. In 1933 they moved to Hartville and a short time later to Sunrise, where they made their home until the 1960 when they took up residence in Guernsey.

Besides her widower, Cora is survived by three sons, Raymond and Alfonso of Torrington, and Eddie of Guernsey; five daughters, Frances Gallegos, of Pueblo, Colo., Jennie Hunter of Cheyenne, Dora Ramos of Lingle, Phyllis Salazar of California and Ruthie Martinez of Nampa, Idaho; and one foster son, Tony Carabajal of Denver, Colo.

Other survivors include two brothers, Antonio Carabajal of Texas and Rosendo Carabajal of Colorado Springs, Colo.; one sister, Lucy Martinex of Denver; 37 grandchildren, 26 great grandchildren and one great great grandchild.

Burial was in the Wheatland Cemetery.

A memorial has been established in her name to the St. Anthony Catholic Church in Guernsey. Schrader-Prel Funeral Home was in charge of arrangements.
