

BATCHER, JACK

Jack Bachelor, who has been working on James Hunton's farm, appeared at a neighbor's house Monday with the information that he was the second son of God and that the Queen of Fairies was determined to crucify him unless he would consent to marry her, which he did not wish to do. The sheriff was notified and the man was brought in and repeated the story. Mr. Roach suggested to Bachelor that he go into an iron bound room where he would be safe from enemies. He appeared to be slightly better yesterday but he will doubtless be sent to the asylum. He is about 45 years old and it is believed that dissipation has unbalanced his mind.
