

BENNETT, MINNIE FLORENCE HUNTER

April 5, 1891-July 29, 1955

Funeral services were held at Schrader Chapel Monday at two o'clock for Mrs. Clarence Bennett of Wheatland, whose death at a local hospital Friday was the culmination of an extended illness. Fred Hopper was the presiding minister and burial was in the local cemetery. Pallbearers were Ivan Hooley, Dana Spaulding, William Johnson, Wilbur Haggerty, Jack Jones and Robert Cowell.

Minnie Florence Hunter was born in Savannah, Mo. April 5, 1891, and was 64 years of age at her demise. She was the daughter of James and Martha E. Green Hunter. The Bennett's were married in St. Joseph, Mo. in 1909 and had lived at Glendo from 1929 to 1950, since when they had made their home north of Wheatland. She was a member of the Christian church.

Surviving in addition to her husband are a son, Virgil E. Bennett of Wheatland; two foster daughters, Mrs. Velma Stevens, Oakland, Calif. and Mrs. Mae Lowry, Columbus, Miss.; four sisters, Miss Addie Hunter, Wheatland, Miss Odessa Hunter, Oklahoma City, Okla., Mrs. Mary Van Horn, Clatskanie, Ore.; and Mrs. Ann Halberg, Canon City, Colo.; and eight grandchildren. A daughter preceded Mrs. Bennett in death in 1918.
