

Mabel W. Bey

WHEATLAND — Funeral Services for Mabel W. Bey, 89, will be held Tuesday at 2:00 p.m. at the Wheatland Bible Church by Pastor Gordon Swedberg and Pastor Floyd Hopper. Interment will follow in the Wheatland Cemetery.

Mrs. Bey died July 11, 1992, at the Converse County Memorial Hospital in Douglas following an extended illness. She was born February 2, 1903, in Dunbar, Neb., the daughter of John and Mamie (Strong) West. She was reared and educated in the Dunbar area. She then moved to Lincoln, Neb., where she worked for the Martin family to support her mother, brother and sister.

On Sept. 26, 1942, she married Raymond H. Bey in Denver, Colo. They farmed southwest of Wheatland until an accident forced them to move into town in 1954.

Mrs. Bey moved into Douglas in May to be near her family because of ill health.

She was a member of the Wheatland Bible Church and the Pleasant Hour Club. She enjoyed writing poetry, gardening, crocheting and sewing.

Survivors include one son, John Bey, of Douglas; one brother J. Eugene West of Eagle, Neb., two grandchildren; four nephews; two nieces; and numerous cousins.

She was preceded in death by her parents; her husband on Nov. 22, 1990; and one sister, Mary Wilson. A memorial to the Platte County Public Health Agency would be appreciated by the family. The Platte Funeral Chapel of Wheatland is in charge of the arrangements.

Family and friends may call at the Converse Funeral Chapel in Douglas from 10 a.m. to 12 noon and then at the Platte Funeral Chapel in Wheatland from 2 p.m. to 8 p.m. on Monday and from 9 a.m. to 12 noon on Tuesday. SC
