11-22-1990
Funeral services for Raymond Henry Bey, 87, were held Monday, Nov. 26 at 9 p.m. at the Wheatland Bible Church, with Pastor Gordon Swedberg officiating. Interment followed in the Wheatland Cemetery.

Mr. Bey died Thursday, Nov. 22 at the Platte County Memorial Hospital in Wheatland after a lengthy illness.

Raymond was born Sept. 12, 1903 at Newkirk, Okla., the son of Frederick and Johannah (Thiele) Bey. He moved to Syracuse, Neb., and later to Burlington, Colo.

He was a veteran of World War II and a member of the Wheatland Bible Church. Raymond and Mabel West, of Lincoln, Neb., were married Sept. 26, 1942 in Denver, Colo.

Following their wedding, they moved to Wheatland. He loved his Lord and lost no opportunity to witness for him.

He was preceded in death by his parents and one sister, Ellen Brown.

He leaves, not to mourn, but to revere his memory, his wife of 48 years, Mabel of Wheatland. Also surviving are a son, John and his wife, Tandie, and grandchildren Stacey and Jeremy Bey, all of Douglas, four sisters, Ada Brown, Alice Sones, Frances Nusbaum and Junita Higin, all of Denver, as well as numerous nieces, nephews and cousins.

Serving as pallbearers were Everett Ayers, Galen Houser, Ed Hunter, Einer Mickelsen, Albert Prather and Wes Walton.

A memorial to the Wheatland Bible Church, Public Health Agency or to American Missionary Fellowship would be equally appreciated by the family.

The Platte Funeral Chapel of Wheatland was in charge of arrangements.
