

5-1 JUNE BILLINGS 1984

Services for June Billings, 67, who died in Cheyenne, May 1, were held in the United Methodist Church in Wheatland, May 4 at 10 a.m. with the Rev. Virgil Lamm and the Rev. Andrew Green officiating.

June Billings was born in Chugwater, June 30, 1916, the daughter of Ogden and Viola Whipple.

She was raised in the Chugwater area and attended the local schools. Harold Billings came to Wyoming to work on her family's homestead, the Whipple Ranch, west of Chugwater. He and June became acquainted and were married June 30, 1932.

Three years later they moved to Wheatland where they farmed and ranched. Harold passed away in 1980 and June has been actively farming until recent ill health forced her hospitalization.

Survivors include a son, Keith Billings of Wheatland, two sisters-in-law, Ruby Whipple of Cheyenne, Helen Mellin of Greeley, Colo., a cousin, Louis Voight of Chugwater, a nephew, Pete Lange of Wheatland, four grandchildren and three great grandchildren.

Besides her husband she was preceded in death by her parents, two infant sons, a brother and a sister.

A memorial in her name has been established to the Platte County Senior Citizens Center.

Burial was in the Wheatland Cemetery.

Schrader-Prell Funeral Home was in charge of arrangements.
