

BLANTON, ANDREW
May 18, 1885-December 7, 1959

Andrew Blanton, a retired railroad laborer, was born in Jackson County, Kentucky May 18, 1885, and died at his home, December 7, 1959, due to a self-inflicted gunshot wound. Mr. Blanton came to Wheatland in 1935 to make his home.

Funeral services will be held today, Friday, at 2:00 p.m. from the Schrader Chapel with Mr. Olin Atwood officiating. Interment will be in the Wheatland cemetery, pallbearers being Glen Nixson, Gay Robbins, Lawrence Warn, W.I. Sutherland, Harold Garrett and Dave Lewis.

He is survived by three sons, D.T. and Andrew, Jr. of Wheatland, and James with the U.S. Navy; one daughter, Mrs. Richard Snook of Wheatland; one step-daughter, Mrs. Orville Wayne, Nebraska City, Nebr.; two brothers, Alex of Torrington and Thomas of Greeley; two sisters, Mrs. Maudie Snook of Wheatland and Mrs. Rhoda Lamb of Waynesville, Ohio. Twenty-two grandchildren also survive.