

MURIEL MARIE BLEDSOE

Services for Muriel Marie Bledsoe, 74, who died May 19, 1984 in Denver, Colo., were held Tuesday, May 22, at 10:30 a.m. in the Schrader-Prell Funeral Chapel with the Rev. Jim Hicks officiating.

Muriel Bledsoe was born in Moore, Mont., on July 20, 1909, the daughter of Roy and Esther Terry. She received her early education in Moore.

In 1923 the family moved to Casper, where she graduated from high school. She moved to Wheatland in 1926, met and later married Otis Breeding in 1930 in Las Vegas, Nev.

After his death in 1934 she returned to Wheatland where she worked as a beautician. She and Don Bledsoe were married in 1941. They resided in Torrington and Wheatland for the next 35 years.

Mrs. Bledsoe retired in 1970 and after her husband's death in 1980 she lived in Wheatland. She was a member of the Hospital Auxiliary and was active with the Senior Citizens.

Survivors include her daughter, Barbara Breeding of Gunnison, Colo., two step-daughters; Mrs. Robert Fitzgerald of Casper; Mrs. Art Zieger of Saratoga; three sisters: Mrs. Denzel Moxley of Chugwater, Mrs. Ray Harmony of Weippe, Idaho, Mrs. Rollie Emch of Great Falls, Mont.; and four step-grandchildren.

Beside her husbands she was preceded in death by her parents and one brother, Elmer Terry.

Contributions in her name may be made to the American Heart Association or to the Senior Citizens.

Burial was in the Wheatland Cemetery.

Schrader-Prell Funeral Home was in charge of arrangements.
