

1-24 Lloyd Kermit Blumer 1989

Services for Lloyd Kermit Blumer, 75, who died in Wheatland Jan. 24, 1989, were held in the Platte Funeral Chapel Friday, Jan. 27, 1989, at 3 p.m. with pastor Gordon Swedberg officiating.

Born March 22, 1913, in Yaylor, Iowa, he was the son of Fred and Retta (Fullerton) Blumer. In 1941 he was married to Alice Lack. He was drafted into military service and after being discharged he went to work for the railroad where he worked until 1957.

He moved to Wyoming where he worked in the limestone mines for a time. He moved to Knoxville, Iowa, to work in civil service, staying there for seventeen years until retiring in 1970. He came to Wheatland in 1987 and remained until his death.

He was a member of the National Wildlife Federation, Disabled American Veterans and the National Rifle Association.

Survivors include two sons: Fred of Wheatland and Dave of California; four daughters: Kathlyn Piper of Englewood, Colo., Bonnie Jenkins of Wheatland, Evelyn Weidner of Casper, Chris Rutter of Scottsbluff, Neb.; eighteen grandchildren and six great-grandchildren.

Burial was in the Wheatland Cemetery.

Platte Funeral Chapel was in charge of arrange-