

BOHL, KENNETH R.
October 20, 1932-May 14, 1980

Services for Kenneth R. Bohl, 47, were held May 17 at Bustard Funeral Home of Casper with the Rev. Father Gerald Sullivan of our Lady of Fatima Catholic Church officiating.

Graveside services with military rites were conducted at the Wheatland Cemetery.

Bohl died May 14 at Natrona County Memorial Hospital following a short illness.

He was born Oct. 20, 1932 at Wheatland, where he was raised and educated. He entered the U.S Navy in 1949 and served during the Korean conflict.

Following his discharge in 1954, he returned to Wyoming where he made his home in Laramie. He was a heavy equipment operator.

On May 11, 1979, he married Trudy Friedland at Casper. They lived there since.

He was preceded in death by one sister and his parents.

Besides his wife, he is survived by one daughter, Carrie Bohl, and one son, K.C. Bohl, both of Laramie; three brothers, George Bohl and Arthur Bohl of Wheatland and John Bohl of San Jose, Cal.; six sisters, Anna Stugart of Wheatland, Hilda Shupp of Torrington, Helen Dower and Mary Farrara both of Denver, Freida Chase of Jackson and Hattie Burzlaff of Casper.