

June Rains Bohmont

June 9, 1922 - September 22, 2017

A graveside service for June Rains Bohmont, 95, was held at 2:00 P.M. Monday, October 2, 2017 at the Wheatland Cemetery in Wheatland, Wyoming.

She died unexpectedly on Friday, September 22, 2017 in Reno, Nevada.

June Rains Bohmont was born on Friday, June 9, 1922 in Wheatland, Wyoming. Her father, William Wallace Rains, and her mother Lida Maye (Miller) Rains are both deceased.

Her brother, Wallace Bray Rains and her sister Margaret Rains Bailey, are both deceased.

June was survived by her sons Dennis Bohmont and Craig Bohmont and various nieces and nephews.

June was raised in the Chugwater and Wheatland, Wyoming rural area in a ranching environment. She graduated from Wheatland High School, class of 1940. While attending Wheatland High School, she was active in a verity of organizations which included drama activities, pep club, and was Prom Queen. Upon graduation she attended the University of Wyoming in Laramie where she earned a Bachelor of Arts in Education. She then taught for one year at a one student rural school on the Kris Ranch on the Laramie River in the Wheatland area. During World War II she held a Civil Servant job at Eagle Pass, Texas and later at Brooks Army Air Field, San Antonio, Texas where her husband, Dale Bohmont, was stationed. After World War II she returned to Laramie, Wyoming to obtain her Bachelor Degree in 1948. She completed a four year program in two years by taking a heavy class load, summer school and correspondence classes.

She and her family have lived in a verity of locations through her husband continuing education and employment. June has found memories of time spent in: Laramie, Wyoming; Lincoln, Nebraska; Cambridge, Massachusetts; Fort Collins, Colorado; and finial moving and settling in Reno, Nevada in 1962. June was active in the Reno area by participating in a various bridge clubs, New Comers, AAUW, Century 21 Club of Reno, and she was active member in the Washoe Medical Axillary through the Washoe Medical Hospital. Beside her many activities, she has worked at the Nevada Insurance Exchanged and the Flower Box where she enjoyed the people she worked with and the people she had the opportunity to meet.

June enjoyed a verity of leisure activities. She enjoyed extensive international travel having visited to sixteen plus countries. This activity also allowed her to visit all fifty states including Washington, D.C. Her other activities included armature landscape painting. June collected Elephant carvings. The size of the Elephants range from about quarter inch to about twelve inches tall made from a vast verity of material with a size of here collection to numerous to count. Another enjoyable past time was arrow head hunting in the vast Nevada Desert. She never found any but enjoyed the beauty of the Sage Brush State

The Gorman Funeral Homes – Platte Chapel of Wheatland, Wyoming was in charge of the arrangements.

Condolences may be sent to the family at www.gormanfh.com