

Verna Ethel Bohmont

November 19, 1905 - December 11, 2001

Graveside services for Verna Ethel Bohmont, 96, of Wheatland, will be held at a time to be announced at a later date. She has been interred next to her husband in the Wheatland Cemetery.

Mrs. Bohmont died Tuesday, Dec. 11, at the Life Care Center in Cheyenne.

Verna was born Nov. 19, 1905, in Bussey, Iowa, the daughter of John and Anna (Yarkosky) Patrick. She came to Wheatland with her family when she was six years old. She attended schools in Wheatland and graduated from high school in 1923. She received a certificate attesting to the fact that she had not missed a day of school. She attended the University of Wyoming and received a teacher's certificate. She then taught school at a rural school, near Dwyer, for several years. Verna married Gilbert L. "Bert" Bohmont on Oct. 9, 1929. She resided in the Wheatland area most of her life. She and her husband ranched and farmed in the area until her husband's death in 1983. After living in Wheatland until 1989, she moved to Colo. for one year and then lived for seven years in Calif. near her daughter and grandchildren. She moved back to Wheatland and resided in an apartment at the senior Center for several years; then at Country Club Assisted Living; and recently moved to the Life Care Center of Cheyenne. She will be missed by many friends and all who knew her.

Verna is survived by her son, Bert Bohmont and his wife, Kathleen of Fort Collins; four grandchildren; and three great grandchildren.

She was preceded in death by her parents; her husband, Gilbert; a daughter, Arveda Bohmont-Stephenson; son-in-law, Duane Stephenson; and eight brothers and sisters.

Platte Funeral Chapel of Wheatland is in charge of the arrangements.
