

Nelle Bolich

12-15-1990

Memorial services for Nelle Bolich, 75, will be held Friday, Dec. 28, at 1 p.m. at the Platte Funeral Chapel in Wheatland, with Delbert Dick, minister, officiating. Interment will follow in the Wheatland Cemetery.

Nelle Bolich died Dec. 15 at the Platte County Memorial Hospital after a long illness.

She was born Feb. 11, 1925 at Torrington, the daughter of John and Elva (Enix) Mers. At an early age, she and her family moved to Slater where they ranched.

She attended school in Wheatland and graduated from Wheatland High School in 1942.

She went to work for Dr. William Rosene as a secretary in 1947. For a while, she also worked for J.M. McDonald Company.

On Aug. 17, 1951, she and Eugene (Red) Bolich were married in Wheatland, where they remained a resident until her death.

She was a member of the Wheatland Business and Professional Women and the Women of the Moose Lodge. She was very active in the Wyoming Heart Association, Wyoming March of Dimes and the local Civil Defense organization.

She is survived by her husband, Eugene (Red) Bolich of Wheatland, a daughter, Sandra Anderson of Chandler, Ariz., a brother, L.E. Mers of Pharr, Tex., two sisters, Ann Goertz of Slater and Ruth Straw of Greybull, Wyo. Two grandchildren also survive.

She was preceded in death by her parents.

A memorial has been established to the Life Enrichment Fund for Nursing Home Patients.

The Platte Funeral Chapel of Wheatland was in charge of arrangements.
