

January 6, 1910

Conrad Bolte Dies

The entire community was shocked yesterday afternoon to learn that Conrad Bolte, one of our most highly respected citizens, had passed away at one o'clock.

Mr. Bolte had been confined to the house for several weeks, but was not thought to be seriously ill. Death was the direct result of an attack of paralysis. Obituary notice will be published next week.

Jan. 14, 1910

Mention was made in these columns last week of the death of Conrad Bolte, which occurred on Thursday, January 6, 1910.

Conrad Bolte was born in Germany on February 23, 1835, being 74 years, 10 months, and 17 days at the time of his death. He emigrated to Scott County, Iowa, in 1854, residing in that state for 51 years. He moved to Wheatland in 1905, since which time he has resided in this city.

Conrad Bolte was united in marriage in Clinton county, Iowa, on October 17, 1864, to Miss Mary Kahler, who with seven children survive him. Two daughters, Misses Emma and Sophia Bolte, and four sons, Messrs. William, Albert E., Edward A., and Emil H., reside at this place while a son, Herman, resides at Manning, Iowa.

Funeral services were held at the M.E. Church on Tuesday afternoon at one o'clock, all of the members of the family being present. The services were conducted by a Lutheran minister from Cheyenne, the deceased being a member of the Lutheran church.

Mr. Bolte was one of our most highly respected citizens, and his death is generally regretted by a wide circle of friends and acquaintances in this section.