

BOLTE, EDWARD ALBERT
May 25, 1880-May 5, 1955

Edward Albert Bolte, 71, retired farmer residing in the Wheatland community since 1904, succumbed at a local hospital last Saturday, May 5, following an illness of two months.

Born at Clinton, Ia. May 25, 1880, the deceased made his home in Iowa until coming to Wheatland in 1904. He was a member of the I.O.O.F. lodge.

Surviving are a son, James of Alcova, Wash., a brother, Emil of Wheatland and one grandchild.

Last rites were conducted at 2:00 p.m. Tuesday from the Schrader chapel, the Rev. Howard Rice officiating, and burial was in the Wheatland cemetery. Pallbearers were Ivory Royce, John Burke, Page Reed, Charles Zohner, Charles Glasser and Harry Royce.