

BOOTH, LUCY LEE WALTON
1869-January 15, 1944

Last rites were held at 2 o'clock Wednesday afternoon from the Schrader chapel in Wheatland for Mrs. Lucy Lee Booth, 75, who died last Friday, January 15, at Evanston where she had resided for the past twelve years. The Rev. W.W. Maxwell officiated and pallbearers were Clem McAuley, Julius Galligar, Al Barrett, Scott Ingalls, G.H. Kuehner, and J.T. Dickson. Mrs. Robert Kuns and Robert Barnes provided the music.

Mrs. Booth, who came to Wyoming in 1920, is survived by three daughters, Mrs. Everett Labertew and Mrs. Virginia Eaton of Wheatland and Mrs. J.T. Dickson of Greeley, Colo.; one grandchild, Betty Jo Eaton, and two sisters, Mrs. Grace Grant of San Diego, Calif. and Mrs. Anna Walton of Pilot, W. Va. One sister, Mrs. Bernhard, preceded her in death in death.