

BOSLEY, WILLIAM LORENZO
March 24, 1873-February 7, 1948

William Lorenzo Bosley, 75, died at his home on Saturday, February 7, following an extended illness. Born in Missouri, March 24, 1873, he was a retired blacksmith and had made his home in Wheatland since 1931.

Survivors include his wife, Elizabeth, and two sisters, Mrs. Ridinour of Oklahoma and Mrs. Julia Carney of California.

Last rites were held Wednesday at two o'clock in the Nazarene church with the Rev. T.R. Louthan and Rev. C.R. Thomas officiating. Pallbearers were Charles Broomfield, Donald Hessling, Fred Whittaker, Wendell Hobson, Lloyd Swain, and the Rev. W.J. Lasher. Burial was in the Wheatland cemetery.