

Rachel L. Bosworth

March 20, 1907, 1918-July 12, 2002

Graveside services and interment for Rachel L. Bosworth, 95, were held on Thursday, July 18, 2002, in the Wheatland Cemetery at Wheatland, Wyoming, with Andy Gudahl, Minister, officiating.

Mrs. Bosworth died Friday, July 12, 2002, at United Medical Center-West in Cheyenne, Wyoming.

Rachel was born March 20, 1907, in Ashmore, Minnesota, the daughter of James Roy and Martha (Preble) Lucas. She came to Wyoming at an early age and was reared and educated in Cheyenne. She moved to Wheatland and married Earl L. Phelps on August 19, 1925 in Wheatland. They resided in Kansas; returned to Wheatland; then to Cheyenne in 1959; again returned to Wheatland in 1963 and remained there until moving to Cheyenne to reside at the Life Care Center in September, 2000. In 1967, Rachel married Malcom K. Bosworth in Wheatland. Rachel worked as a cook and enjoyed gardening, crocheting, reading, and was a rock hound. She was a member of the Wheatland United Methodist Church and the Rebekah Lodge.

Rachel is survived by three children, Preble Phelps of Cheyenne, James E. Phelps of Albuquerque, New Mexico, and Sara Jane Freytag of Canon City, Colorado; 22 grandchildren; 40 great grandchildren; and 8 great-great grandchildren.

She was preceded in death by her parents; husband, Earl L. Phelps on May 8, 1963 and Malcom K. Bosworth on October 26, 1985; three daughters, Mary Martha Phelps, Emma Lou Jackson, and Patrician Ann Graves; three step sisters; and four step brothers.

Serving as honorary pallbearers will be her many grandchildren.

Memorials to a charity of the donor's name would be appreciated by the family.

Platte County Funeral Chapel of Wheatland was in charge of the arrangements.
