Donald Bovee passes away

Donald B. Bovee, 70, Winthrop, died Tuesday at his home, after a long illness.

Born in Wheatland, Wyo., on December 2, 1910, he lived there for 40 years. He moved to the Twisp area in 1962 and farmed in the Beaver Creek area.

On May 3, 1968, he married Jackie McCauley, and they made their home on the Beaver Creek ranch, until Mr. Bovee retired and they moved to the Twin Lakes area in 1973.

Survivors include his wife, Jackie, at home; two sons, Curt and Calvin Bovee, both of Winthrop; two daughters, Mrs. Shirley Shockley, Wheatland, Wyo., and Mrs. Beverly Lappen, Puzell, Oregon; five step-sons, Pat McCauley of Bend, Oregon, Joe McCauley of Winthrop, Jay McCauley of Twisp, Mack McCauley of Cashmere, and Jim McCauley of Fasco; three step-daughters, Judy McCauley of Waterville, Mrs. Ann Cotner of Winthrop, and Mrs. Mary Short of Spokane; two brothers, Halbert Bovee and Clyde Bovee, both of Twisp; eight grandchildren; 21 step-grandchildren, and four step-great-grandchildren. He was preceded in death by his first wife, Edith, one son, one brother, and three sisters.

Freese's Methow Valley Chapel, Twisp, is in charge of arrangements.
