

Irene E. Boyd

7-16-1990
Funeral services for Irene E. Boyd, age 78, were held at First Christian Church Monday, Jan. 22, at 11 a.m., with Delbert Dick, minister officiating.

Mrs. Boyd died Tuesday, Jan. 16, at the Platte County Memorial Hospital in Wheatland, Wyoming following a long illness.

Irene E. Boyd was born June 21, 1911, in Mt. Claire, Neb., the daughter of Jesse and Alta (Garver) Yohey. She was educated in Mt. Claire, and also in Kansas.

She married Lawrence Edens in Nebraska, who passed away in 1950. In 1937 she moved to Wheatland, Wyoming, with her family. In 1956, she married Bill Boyd in Laramie, Wyo., and they have made their home in Wheatland since their marriage.

Irene was a member of the Daughters of American Revolution, Wheatland Golf Club, Eastern Star and the Dorcas Society.

Irene is survived by her Husband, "Bill" Boyd, two daughters, Pat Wilson of Wheatland, and Sharon Pickering of Laramie, and two stepchildren Kenneth Boyd of Illinois, and Virginia Boyd of Wheatland, five grandchildren and six great-grandchildren.

Irene is also survived by Her sister Jessie Gray of Dallas, Ore.; brothers, William A. Yohey of Wamic Ore., and Lonnie Yohey of Nashville, Tenn.

A memorial fund has been established to the Platt County Public Library, in Wheatland by the family of Mrs. Boyd.

The Platte Funeral Chapel was in charge of the arrangements.
