

BOYD, MARIA
1858-April 30, 1914

Following an operation for removal of a cancer, Mrs. John Boyd of this city, died in a hospital in Denver on Tuesday morning at 8 o'clock. The remains were brought to Wheatland yesterday and the funeral will be held today.

Mrs. Boyd has been in a serious condition for some time. Last week she was taken to Denver in the hope that an operation might remove the source of her ailment. This took place on Saturday. Up to Monday noon, she seemed to be doing very well, but at this time a turn for the worse was noted and she failed rapidly to the end.

Deceased is survived by her husband, two sons, J.C. Boyd and Chas. Boyd, three daughters, Miss Eva Boyd of this place, Mrs. Arthur Moody of Denver and Mrs. Kennedy of Thermopolis.
