

Mrs. Bradney Answers

Final Call Friday

1-31-1943

Mrs. Laura Davis Bradney, mother of Mrs. L. W. Copley and Mrs. Velma Davis, died Friday, January 31st after a brief illness.

Mrs. Bradney was born January 9, 1858 at Knoxville, Iowa. Funeral services were held at 2 o'clock Sunday afternoon at the Copley Funeral Home, with Reverend Lockwood, Episcopal pastor officiating.

Surviving the deceased are three daughters: Mrs. J. B. Summer of Provo, Utah, Mrs. L. W. Copley and Mrs. Velma Davis of Wheatland, nine grand children and four great grand children. Two sons preceded her in death. Keith, who died in the World War in 1918, and Searl in 1938.

Since Mr. Bradney's death in 1931, Mrs. Bradney has made numerous visits to Wheatland spending in all about four and a half years here, and since May of last year has made her home with Mrs. Davis.

Mr. and Mrs. Bradney were pioneers in both Nebraska and Colorado during the early days of these states, making their home in Colorado during later years and where Mr. Bradney died.

Interment was made in the Wheatland cemetery.
