February 25, 1930 – November 4, 2011

A funeral service for Joseph G. Brant, 81, will be held 10:00 A.M. Wednesday, November 9, 2011 at the First Christian Church in Wheatland, Wyoming. Interment will be in the Wheatland Cemetery.

Joseph Brant a resident of Wheatland passed away Friday, November 4, 2011 at home in Wheatland.

Joe was born February 25, 1930, the son of Edmund and Ruzena (Sita) Brant in Lucas, Kansas. Joe was reared and educated in Kansas. He was drafted in 1951 to fight in the Korean War. He was in the tank division and was transferred to the wheel mechanic behind the front line. He returned from the war and married Beulah Evelyn Ball one week later on September 18, 1952. Together they had four children, Terry, Mark, Lisa, and Julie. Joe and Evelyn had a dairy farm after they got married and ran that for a several years before they sold it. In February 1971, Joe and his family moved to Wyoming and where he started working for Drube's. In 1973, Joseph began his own Masonry business with his son Terry called Brant's Masonry.

Joe's hobbies were hunting, fishing, traveling and snow skiing. He also loved to water ski so much that he bought his own boat to enjoy it with his family. Joe also loved to work; he was always asking his family and friends if there was anything he could do for them.
