Rosanna was born Oct. 8, 1938, in Wichita, Kans., the daughter of Joe and Esther (Whittington) Garramone. The family moved to Denver, Colo., where she attended St. Joseph Catholic School and John Robert Powers Modeling School, as well as Loretta Heights College and then the University of Northern Colorado at Greeley, Colo.

Rosanna married Raymond V. Bremer in Denver on Dec. 28, 1963. They farmed near Wheatland from 1969 until 1978, when they moved to Fort Collins, Colo., returning to Wheatland in 1993. Rosanna worked for many employers in her life. She especially enjoyed working for Walt Fischer at Hewlett Packard in Fort Collins and later for Dawn Finnerty at the Platte County Chamber of Commerce in Wheatland. Rosanna continued to be dearly connected with her friends in Ft. Collins after the move to Wheatland. While working ten years at Hewlett Packard, she mentored many young people and always had a great time.

She loved to crochet, was an avid reader, but above all else, she was a great people person. Rosanna was a member of Saint Patrick Catholic Church and PEO Chapter AW. Rosanna and her family have been grateful to all of the special people who took such great care of her all of her life. She wanted everyone to remember her zest for life.

Survivors include her husband, Raymond of Wheatland; two daughters, Monica and husband, Scot Grieves of Longmont, Colo. and Miriam Harris of Billings, Mont.; and five grandchildren, Brittany, Ethan, and Chance of Billings and Daniel and Laura Beth of Longmont. She was preceded in death by her parents.

Serving as honorary pallbearers were her family and many friends.

Memorials to Hospice of Platte County, P.O. Box 1025, Wheatland, WY 82201-1025 would be appreciated by the family.
