

BROWN, YVONNE CHRISTINE
1957-July 15, 1959

Eighteen month old Yvonne Christine Brown dies at 6:30 Wednesday evening from injuries she received when run over by a pick-up truck. She was the daughter of Charles E. Brown of Worland and the late Barbara Maston Brown, who was killed in an automobile accident, September 24, 1958, near Chugwater.

According to Coroner Ted C. Schrader and eyewitnesses to the accident, Mrs. Marie Maston and Mrs. Frank Young, grandmother and aunt of the child, Robert Moore, 17, driving a pick-up truck, opened the gate at the top of the creek, which he had to ford to leave the ranch, and started down the incline very slowly.

Moore was watching one of the other small children on the right side of the truck by the creek and did not see Yvonne on the left side, who had left the picnic area to join her father, Charles E. Brown.

Mr. Brown of Worland was visiting here on vacation and had taken the group to the Moore ranch to picnic. Mrs. Maston had been taking care of the three Brown children since the death of their mother about a year ago.

Schrader stated the two left wheels of the truck passed over the child, and crushed her chest. He, with Sheriff Sutherland, are investigating the accident and probably no inquest will be held.

Funeral arrangements are incomplete at this time.

She is survived by her father, two brothers, Terrance Gene and Charles Kenneth, her grandparents, Mrs. Marie Maston of Wheatland, Mrs. Alva Gaddis, Laramie and John Brown of Guernsey.
