

Services Friday for Mrs. Buechner, pioneer resident

6-14-1960
The community was deeply saddened Tuesday to learn of the death of one of their beloved first ladies of Wheatland, Mrs. Charles Buechner.

Mrs. Buechner came to Wheatland 54 years ago and in 1931, with her late husband, opened the Buechner Drug and Jewelry store which was located where Thorne Drug now stands. They sold the store in 1946 when they both retired.

Emma Elizabeth Buechner was born in Fulton, Mo. April 4, 1878, to Frederick and Minnie Judd Bocking, and passed away in Wheatland after an extended illness at the age of 82.

She is survived by one daughter, Mrs. Bernard (Helen) Bowen of Wheatland, and one brother, Charles Bocking of Seattle, Wash.

Funeral services will be held Friday afternoon at 4 o'clock from the All Saints Episcopal church, of which she was a longtime member. Rev. John W. Day, Jr. will officiate. Burial will be in the Wheatland cemetery by the side of her husband.

Pallbearers will be William Bowen, Hector Zaring, C. V. Crouter, C. E. Artist, L. J. Belt and Howard Fish.
