

Paul Bullock Succumbs To Long Illness

8-23-1970
An extended illness claimed the life of Paul W. Bullock, age 69, Sunday Aug. 23, 1970, at the Platte Co. Memorial Hospital.

Mr. Bullock a retired merchant had lived in Wheatland since 1949, his prior residence was Torrington. He was married to Bertha M. Medlar, July 3, 1921 at Mason City, Nebr.

He was born in Noraway, Iowa, Aug. 15, 1901, was a veteran of World War I, a Past Commander of the American Legion, A.F.&A.M. No. 16, Royal Arch Masonary.

He is survived by his wife, Bertha two sons Donald P. of Kalamazoo, Mich., and Richard J. of Denver, Colo. Two daughters, Mrs. Thomas (Phillis) Marks, Fair Oaks, Calif., Mrs. Ray (Shirley) Haskins, Powell, his mother, Mrs. Mamie Bullock, Dalton, Nebr. and a brother and sister. He is also survived by sixteen grandchildren.

Services were held at Schraeder Chapel Wed. Aug. 26, at 10:00 a.m. with Rev. Clarence Smith officiating, and Masonic Graveside services were held at the Wheatland cemetery.

Pallbearers were Frank Hester, Dick Woodhouse, Herb Percy, Marvin Stevenson, Burt Anderson, and Wilbur Woods.