

BURGESS, CODY CARLYLE
September 18, 1924-January 30, 1940

Cody Carlyle Burgess, 15, son of Mrs. Louise Burgess of Wheatland, passed away at his home Wednesday morning at 6 o'clock following an illness of two weeks. The youth, who had been ill with the flu, suffered a relapse the first of the week.

Cody was born September 18, 1924 at Lavoye, Wyoming. He lived in Wheatland with his mother and sisters for the past several years, except for two years recently spent in Sunrise.

Surviving are his mother, three sisters, Charlotte, Maxine and Arlene, his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Max Ebert, a number of uncles and aunts and other relatives. His father preceded him in death several years ago.

Funeral services will be held Friday afternoon at 2 o'clock from the Watson and Dennis Chapel and burial will be made in the Wheatland cemetery.
