

BURKE, JOHN A.
September 10, 1864-March 9, 1913

John Burke, a pioneer resident in the Wheatland country, died at the Dr. Phifer hospital Thursday afternoon of pneumonia. He was taken ill at the Hoffman ranch the first of the week and brought to town for treatment. Deceased had lived here for many years and was well known.

The remains will be interred at the Wheatland cemetery. Funeral arrangements have not been made.