January 13, 1915 – September 2, 2006

Funeral services for Hattie Louise Burzlaff, 91, will be held at 11 a.m. on Wednesday, Sept. 6 at the Trinity Lutheran Church in Wheatland with Pastor Marvin Temme officiating. Visiting hours will be from 2 p.m. to 4 p.m. at the Colyer Funeral Home on Tuesday, Sept. 5 and before the service. Burial will take place at the Wheatland Cemetery. Hattie died on Sept. 2, 2006, at the Goshen Care Center in Torrington. Memorials can be made to the Goshen Care Center or to the Mount Hope Lutheran Church in Casper. Arrangements are under the direction of the Colyer Funeral Home and friends are invited to send condolences to the family at www.colyerfuneralhome.com.

Hattie was born to George and Kathrine (Beitnitz) Bohl on Jan. 13, 1915, in Delta, Colo. The family then moved to Lovell in 1920. Later, they moved to Wheatland in 1925, where she attended several country schools there. Hattie graduated Wheatland High School in 1934 where she worked as a bookkeeper and clerk for J. C. Penney and at the high school.

She married Lawrence J. Burzlaff in 1939 where they farmed until they moved to town in 1946. In 1969, she moved to Casper for a brief period before moving to Lander in 1970. There she stayed until 1974 only to make Casper her permanent residence. There, Hattie and her husband worked a bookkeeping business for many years. After her husband's passing, she moved to the Goshen Care Center in Torrington in 2003 where she remained upon her death. She enjoyed china painting, watercolors, sewing, crocheting, flower gardening and her family.

She is survived by two brothers, Arthur Bohl of Wheatland, John Bohl of Paradise, Calif.; one sister, Mary Farrara of Westminster, Colo.; two daughters and their spouses, Beverly and Larry Miskimins of Torrington, and Lavona and Bob Wyckoff of Skiatook, Ok.; and son Steven and his wife Janice Burzlaff of Elizabethtown, Ky.; nine grandchildren and three great-grandchildren.

She was preceded in death by her parents, spouse, two brothers and five sisters.
