

William Call of Dwyer died of a stroke of appoplexy at his home on Sunday morning. Mr. Call suffered a stroke about a week ago but was better Sunday morning and asked to be taken to the table for breakfast. Death came a few hours later. He was in his fifty-ninth year and is survived by his wife and two sons Earl and Leonard Call. The third son was killed in the World War. Ora Call Post of the American Legion and the Auxiliary Unit having been named in his honor. Funeral services will be held in Wheatland from the Christian church at a date to be determined upon word from other relatives and burial here with the Lyla Watson Funeral Home service.

June 26, 1932
Funeral Home