

CARBAJAL, ROSENDO
1883-August 26, 1956

Services were held today (Thursday) at 9:00 a.m. at the St. Patrick's church for Rosendo Carbajal, a retired farmer worker from Cheyenne. Father Thomas Aeschbacher was in charge of services and burial was in the Wheatland cemetery. Carbajal passed away August 26, at Cheyenne after a short illness at the age of 73. He was born in New Mexico but made his home in Wheatland from 1924 to 1954. He was affiliated with the Catholic church.

Survivors include his wife, Felipita Carbajal of Cheyenne, 11 sons, Tony, Antonio and Mike of Cheyenne, Roy of Central City, Colo., Dale of Huntley, Joe, Steve and John, all of Torrington, Abe of Colorado Springs, Colo., Tony of Sunrise, and Frank of Colorado Springs; four daughters, Mrs. Cora Baros of Sunrise, Mrs. Lucy Martinez of Denver and Miss Flora and Miss Mary Carbajal, both of Cheyenne.