

CAREY, LAWRENCE HARVEY
November 29, 1925-November 13, 1992

Funeral services for Lawrence Harvey Carey, 66, were held Wednesday, November 18, 1992 at 2:00 p.m. at the Wheatland Bible Church with Rev. Gordon Swedberg officiating. Interment was in the Wheatland Cemetery.

Mr. Carey died Friday, November 13, at his home in Hanna following a short illness.

He was born November 29, 1925, the son of Ralph and Mary Etta (Goebel) Carey on their Antelope Gap homestead east of Wheatland.

He was raised and educated in the Wheatland area.

At 17 years of age, he voluntarily enlisted in the United States Army, serving two years in World War II and then continuing his service in the Army Reserves.

On June 26, 1949, he married Carrol Chisholm in Scottsbluff, Nebraska. In 1950, he was again called to defend his country in the Korean Conflict.

Upon his return, the family resumed their life in Wyoming. They moved to the Hanna/Medicine Bow area in 1972.

Throughout his working years, Lawrence's employment was mainly in mining and construction. His co-workers will remember him as "Larry".

Besides enjoying his work and his family, he loved to fish with his sons, sons-in-law, and grandsons. He also took pleasure in gardening and yard work and found his woodworking hobby both challenging and satisfying.

Lawrence is survived by his wife, Carrol of Hanna; and his children, Rebecca Lyles of Cheyenne, Lanny Carey of Wheatland, Melissa Hudson of Saint Mary's, Georgia, Roger Carey of Wheatland, and Joann Dennis of Carlin, Nevada.

Other survivors include two sisters; Hazel Thompson of Clovis, New Mexico, and Nan Strand of San Pedro, California; three brothers, Leonard Carey of Kiowa, Kansas, Frank Carey of St. George, Utah, and his twin brother, Lester Carey of Vancouver, Washington; eleven grandchildren and one great grandchild.

He was preceded in death by his parents, one sister, Helen, and a grandson, Shiloh.

Serving as pallbearers were Dick English, Keith Reich, Tuffy Hanks, Jack Culley, Larry Carey and Bill Henman.
