

CARR, NELLIE GRADY
January, 1892-August 31, 1934

The community was saddened late Thursday evening when news of the sudden death of Mrs. Nellie Carr, wife of Tom Carr, was received here. Mrs. Carr had been in her usual good health until within a moment of her passing. Mrs. Carr was well and favorably known throughout this community, where she has resided for the past 18 years. She was born in Albia, Iowa, forty-one years ago last January, and was the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Michael Grady. Mr. Grady preceded his daughter in death a number of years ago. She was united in marriage to Mr. Carr in Iowa. She leaves to mourn her loss, her husband, a daughter, Ruth Jean, and her mother, Mrs. Anna Grady, besides a host of other relatives and friends.

Funeral services were held Monday morning at nine o'clock at the Community church, the service being in charge of Father Bruno and Father Ignatius. Music was furnished by a trio composed of Mrs. W.J. Corrigan, Mrs. Charles DeFond and Mrs. Roy Strong, with Miss Catherine Crawford playing the piano. Pall-bearers were Ed and Charles Colby, Otis Havelly, Carl Spaeth, E.H. McNall, and Bill Cook.

Interment was in the Wheatland cemetery.

Mrs. Anna Grady and Mrs. Lewis of Des Moines, Iowa, arrived Monday to attend the funeral services of Mrs. Tom Carr. Mrs. Lewis returned to her home Tuesday morning, while Mrs. Grady will stay for an extended visit.
