

CHADWICK, BEN F.
December 5, 1886-June 5, 1935

Ben Chadwick, prominent rancher southwest of Wheatland, passed away in Wheatland Wednesday after an illness of tick fever. He was stricken with the deadly disease about three weeks ago and his condition became more serious the last week.

Mr. Chadwick was born at Cheyenne December 5, 1886 and had lived in this community about 43 years. He is survived by his wife. He is also survived by his mother, one brother and three sisters.

Funeral services will be held Saturday afternoon from the Masonic Temple. Burial will take place in the Wheatland cemetery with the Lyla Watson Funeral Home in charge of arrangements.