

CHAVEZ, ORALIA
1935-May 15, 1936

Another small child passed away in Wheatland last week. Oralia Chavez, age one year, died of pneumonia on Friday, May 15, after a short illness.

Oralia was the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Manual Chavez, who lived on the A.A. Suntych farm for four years. Besides her parents, she is survived by twelve brothers and sisters.

Funeral services were held Sunday morning at the home and interment was made in the Wheatland cemetery.

Funeral arrangements were made by the Copley Funeral home.
