

Alla J. "Teach" Chisholm

10-21-1992

Funeral Services for Alla J. "Teach" Chisholm, 88, were held Saturday, October 24 at 10:00 a.m. at the Platte Funeral Chapel with Reverend Doctor James S. Vuocolo of the United Church of Christ officiating. Interment was in the Wheatland Cemetery.

Alla died Wednesday, October 21—at the Platte County Memorial Nursing Home in Wheatland.

She was born July 14, 1904 in Bloomington, Nebraska, the daughter of William and Alice (Bailey) Chisholm. She was reared and educated in Nebraska, attending the Lone Star School House and graduating from Bloomington High School and Hastings Teacher's College. She also attended the University of Wyoming.

She taught school in New Mexico prior to coming to Wyoming in 1926. Alla taught in the Garrett School, Little Medicine, and Fox Park country schools.

She retired in 1958 and in her retirement years, she made her home with Katie and Luke Corl. She loved to read and sew. For the past six years she resided at the nursing home where she was dearly loved.

She is survived by one brother, Donald Chisholm of Franklin, Nebraska. Other survivors include several nieces and nephews; and friends Luke and Katie Corl, Jan Norm, Ryker, Erica, Trese, Ron, Harry and Debbie.

She was preceded in death by her parents, one brother, and two sisters.

Serving as pallbearers were Tom Atkinson, Luke Corl, Harry Corl, and Ryker Hyche.

A memorial to the Platte County Memorial Nursing Home would be appreciated by the family.

The Platte Funeral Chapel was in charge of the arrangements.
