

JEFFREY DOUGLAS CLACK

4-5-1983

Graveside services for Jeffrey Clack were conducted Monday, April 18, 1983 at the Wheatland Cemetery with the Rev. Ken Saunders of the United Church of Christ officiating.

Jeffrey Douglas Clack was born April 10, 1945 in Pennsylvania, the son of Marion and Charles Douglas Clack. He was reared in the Wheatland area, graduating from Wheatland High School in 1963.

He entered the U.S. Army and served in Viet Nam. Upon his discharge from military duty, he was affiliated with various newspapers as a news photographer.

At the time of his death, he was involved with computer work. He died in Nevada on April 5, 1983.

He is survived by his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Douglas Clack of Driggs, Idaho, Mr. and Mrs. Auldon Vogt of Wheatland, a sister, Marsha Sargent of Denver, and five step-sisters and a step-brother. Surviving also is his maternal grandmother, Edith Bridgmon of Wheatland.

A memorial has been established in his name to the Laramie Peak Museum in Wheatland.

The Schrader-Prell Funeral Home was in charge of arrangements.