

CORBRIDGE, PEARL GOODRICH
April 21, 1889-February 12, 1914

Pearl Goodrich Corbridge was born in Greeley, Colo. April 21st, 1889. She passed suddenly from this life Thursday afternoon of last week without a premonition that death was near. Age 24 years, 9 months and 17 days.

She was united in marriage with Harvey C. Corbridge on Feb. 16th, 1913. To this union was born a beautiful little girl babe which is now about three weeks old. She united with the First Methodist Episcopal church of Wheatland Dec. 11, 1904, was transferred to our church in Laramie while she was attending the University in that place. When she returned home, her membership was again transferred to this church, where she has continued a faithful member until her call came so suddenly last Thursday for her transfer to the life beyond the river.

Mrs. Corbridge leaves to mourn, her husband, H.C. Corbridge; her parents, Mr. and Mrs. G.T. Goodrich; one brother, Ward Goodrich; and two sisters, Miss Rosalie and Dorothy Goodrich. We may add to these the relatives and a long list of friends.

The bereaved ones have the unmeasured sympathy of all in their great sorrow. Funeral services were held at the M.E. church on Saturday afternoon at 2:30, interment being made in the Wheatland cemetery.
