

CROGHAN, RUTH IRENE

1914-June 28, 1918

Ruth Irene, the foster daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Patterson, formerly of Wheatland, but now of Casper, died on June 28th from diphtheria in Casper. The child was four years and three months of age. The body was brought to Wheatland Saturday and buried by the side of the mother, Mrs. C.D. Croghan, in the Wheatland cemetery. This is the seventh death from diphtheria that has occurred in Casper.
